Busy as Bees; Happy as Clams

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (WNS)—Whistle while you work? Most women do.

That's the finding of a research team at the University of Michigan's Survey Research Centre. The experts have just completed a study on what women love best. The answer: work.

They grant that it may seem surprising, but more than half the country's married women feel that housework helps their self-esteem.

Just Before the Party

He Wed the Girl On Travel Poster

TEL AVIV Israel (UPI)—American tourist Michael Walder, 24, who fell in love with the girl on an Israeli travel poster in a window in Amsterdam, married her here yesterday.

Walder, an attorney from Alexandria, La., and Nurit Pilzer, 19, were wed in Tel Aviv's swank Dan Hotel following a brief, whirlwind courtship. They honeymooned by the Sea of Galillee and soon will leave for a cruise. They will settle in Alexandria.

The young attorney was touring Europe when he noticed the poster.

He immediately took the poster's advice to "follow the sun to Israel."

Deny Dogs or Cats To Tots Under Six

TORONTO (CP)—No child under six years of age should have a pet dog or cat, says Mrs. Harry Saunders, chairman of the women's division of the Toronto Humane Society.

"Pets should be barred for children until they are old enough to take proper care of them," she said. "Small children will just grab kittens or puppies and injure them, because youngsters do not understand how fragile the animals are."
